

Gwinnett Senior Golden Games
Meeting Minutes
January 17, 2023

- Meeting called to order by President Kim Shealy at 10:00 a.m.
- Pledge Of Allegiance lead by Lisa Tuggle
- Guest Speaker Cathy Stokes, CTIS, Tour Planner, gave a brief presentation on upcoming day and night tours for Seniors on The Go.
- Invocation lead by Al Stacer
- Introduction of Members and Guests
- Treasurer's Report by Kathryn Hall
- Minutes from last meeting found online.
- Kathryn Hall reported Delmar Gardens has invited Executive Board Members to lunch and meeting on February 9, 2023, to discuss their participation in Golden Games 2023.
- Donation cards will be available for the February meeting.
- Event Manager training will take place at Rhodes Jordan, May 5th, 10:00 a.m. Equipment for all games will be available to ensure all understand the rules and how to play. Al and Sherry will be given a complete list of participants and vacancies in events in March so they can reach out to volunteers. Thanks to Robin Porter for volunteering for ladder ball.
- Gwinnett Parks & Recreation staff went over upcoming events and opportunities to participate and volunteer. Please go on-line to register and participate. Lots of fun stuff happening!
- Volunteers needed to help sort books for the little free library. Please call Tania Ballou at Gwinnett Environmental and Heritage Center in Buford at 770-904-3500 if you are interested in helping with this project.
- Charles Crowell is overseeing two bowling leagues at Stars and Strikes in Dacula on Mondays and Wednesdays. See Charles for details.
- Friday Frolics at Rhodes Jordan Community Center is growing rapidly in participation and instruction. Roy Crayton teaches table tennis. Pickle Ball has been well attended with beginner and advanced players. Time 10:00 a.m. Other games are available also.
- Shirt color selection for 2023 games - unanimous vote for the color Lime Green.
- Meal for Opening Ceremonies – Hamburgers, Hot Dogs and Chips.
- Attendees 31
- Next Meeting February 21, 2023, Bethesda Senior Center

Respectfully submitted,
Rita Carreno